the renewed attention to the origin and shape of nationalist discourses has promoted many excellent studies devoted to examining the rich storehouse of cultural responses produced during and after risorgimento the political events that from 1859 to 1870 led Italy from being a fragmented peninsula to an independent and unified nation state however the assessment of risorgimento and its myths from the post world war II era to the present remains for the most part unexplored while it is undeniable that the dramatic economic social and political transformations that have characterized Italy from the second half of the twentieth century to the present have altered the role and function of nationalist narratives it remains equally true that interest in the risorgimento in modern Italian culture has not diminished

this bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence in the second half of the twentieth century the Italian historical novel provided an unrivalled number of best sellers and publishing phenomena the success of the genre is closely related to a more general interest in revisiting the past in the light of a changed understanding of the nature or philosophy of history this study aims to explore the particularly marked increase in the production and popularity of the historical novel in the period between the mid 1960s and the early 1990s with reference to current debates on the nature of history it presents a theoretical framework which establishes the centrality of philosophy of history to the development of the genre the employment of this framework opens out the discussion of literary change to the consideration of historiographical developments and wider critical debate the theoretical insights gained inform the close textual analysis provided in the chapters dealing with novels written by five of Italy's foremost contemporary writers Leonardo Sciascia Vincenzo Consolo Sebastiano Vassalli Umberto Eco and Luigi Malerba this is the third and last of three samplers of essays selected from review of national literatures the prestigious series published between 1970 and 2001 and distributed in over 40 foreign countries and the US by Council on National Literatures the essays chosen for this third volume reflect CNL's interest in expanding the traditional comparative canon by presenting European authors works and literary movements in a new light or from an unusual point of view among the essays chosen for this third sampler is Victor Lange's expressionism a topological essay Eldred Jones racial terms for Africans in Elizabethan usage Egbert Krispyn's Netherlandic studies in the seventies Frank J.
